Exemption From Charitable Solicitation Registration Statement

(for Out-of State Charitable Organizations Not Required to Register to Do Business in Nevada)

Who must file

This form is to be completed and filed by charitable organizations not incorporated in or “doing business” in Nevada, and that intend to solicit charitable (tax-deductible) contributions in Nevada.

Exemption From Charitable Solicitation Registration Statement:

This form must be filed by any charitable organization that is exempt from federal income tax under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, that intends to solicit contributions in Nevada, and that claims exemption from the registration requirements in Chapter 7 of the Nevada Revised Statutes.

For this purpose:

A charitable organization is any organization that has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as exempt from federal income tax under §501(c)(3). It does not include “any organization that is established for and serving bona fide religious purposes.” Also, it only includes §501(c)(3)s and does not include an organization exempt from federal income tax under any other paragraph of §501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (such as §501(c)(4) or §501(c)(6)).

A charitable organization is “doing business” in Nevada if it has an office in Nevada, or if its employees or agents regularly conduct business in Nevada (such as by delivering program services within the state).

An organization is not “doing business” when it, without more, conducts fundraising from an out-of-state location by such remote means as mail, e-mail, telephone, television, or other media. In addition, an organization is not doing business when it conducts a one-off fundraising event within the state or holds a meeting concerning organizational affairs within the state.

For further information about activities that, by statute, do not constitute “doing business” within Nevada, see Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) 80.015.

When to file

Initial filing

Charitable organizations soliciting contributions in Nevada and claiming exemption from registration, must file this form before soliciting contributions in Nevada.

Annual renewal filing

All charitable organizations must file this form each year, not later than the end of the anniversary month in which they first filed.

Where to file

This form should be mailed to the following address:

Exemption From Charitable Solicitation Registration Statement

Line 1

Ordinarily, the name of the charitable organization in its Articles of Incorporation or other governing document should be the same as the name under which it is registered with the Internal Revenue Service.

Line 1(c)

Report the name of any project or “dba” different than the name reported on Line 1(a) under which the charitable organization will raise money in Nevada.

Line 3

Report the name of the contact person within the organization. If the organization contracts with an outside service provider to manage and file its registrations, you may report the name of a contact person at the service provider.

Line 4

The “third degree of consanguinity or affinity” includes, with respect to any individual and his or her spouse:

- a. Children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren;
- b. Parents, siblings, and nephews and nieces; and
- c. Grandparents, uncles and aunts, and great-grandparents.

An organization is an integrated auxiliary of a church or convention or association of churches if it is (1) exempt under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, (2) affiliated with a church or convention of association of churches, and (3) “internally supported.” A charity is “internally supported” unless it both—

1. Offers admissions, goods, services, or facilities for sale, other than on an incidental basis to the general public (except goods, services, or facilities sold at a nominal charge or for an insubstantial portion of the costs); and
2. Normally receives more than 50% of its support from a combination of governmental sources, public solicitation of contributions, and receipts from the sale of admissions, goods, performance of services, or furnishing of facilities in activities that are not unrelated trades or businesses.
